SAVE 2 HOMES BUT THIRD IS RAZED BY FIRE

Property of E. A. Post is burned to the ground in Moline. Moline, Ill., Dec. 17.—All Milan arose at 3 o'clock this morning to save two residences, while the third was leveled to the ground. Fire which started when a piece of mortar in the kitchen chimney became loose, permitting sparks from the chimney to fall into the room, destroyed the story-and-a-half house owned by E. A. Post. The property is on Grant street.

OVER 5,000 AUTOS PARKED DAILY AT GRANT RESERVE

Chicago, Ill.—More than 5,000 automobiles are parked daily in the municipal parking reserve in Grant Park during the summer months, according to an estimate of Chicago policemen stationed there. Three hundred and sixty acres of land have been leveled off along the Illinois Central Railroad company's right of way and devoted entirely to the storage of automobiles during business hours. The daily parking of this huge fleet of machines partially solves the traffic problem in the adjacent downtown district.

NOT ONE "DEMOCRAT"

Lansing, Mich.—Michigan's Republican state legislature will convene Jan. 5. The session will be the first one in recent years in which the democratic party is not represented. Two democrats were members of the last legislature but neither of them made the run this year.

Santa Claus Tickets

Every day now until Christmas Eve, every customer buying 25c anywhere in our store will be given a pretty little "Santa Claus" ticket, free.

Every day now until Christmas, Santa Claus will be here in our Toy and Grocery Department with a pretty little present and a stick of candy for each child who brings him a "Santa Claus" ticket.

If it isn't right tell us. We'll make it right.

Remember our special Christmas offer on Furniture, Rugs, Beds, Etc., Third Floor: 10 percent off, up to Christmas, and an extra 10 percent if your bill comes to $100.00. That means $100.00 worth for $81.00.

Through the Store With the Ad Writer This Morning

Starting at the Fifth Avenue entrance we're confronted with row upon row of Christmas slippers—reaching back to the end of the store. Mr. Kramer says "They'll all be sold before Christmas." No doubt he knows, but it seems as if that would mean a pair of slippers for most everybody in Moline.

The Jewelry Department, right across has a splendid supply of Christmas gifts. Those jewelry samples help out a lot. The beads and bar pins strike us as the best bargains here.

Here's the Candy Department. "Are those chocolate drops only 25c a pound?" "Yes, and this peanut brittle is selling at 20c a pound." The lady gives her Christmas order for candy immediately, and others crowd up to be waited on.

On the second floor, in the Ready-to-Wear Department, Mrs. Hill stops just long enough (she is marking $10.98 georgette waists down to $5.98), to say, "To begin with, tell about our coats, dresses, suits at Half Price." And there we leave her, for everybody in Moline already knows that the cut prices in this department are tremendous.

On the Third floor, Mr. Suman hurries to say: "Tell them about our Christmas pictures. Look
